

TO HIS EXCELLENCY,

The GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF New York.

WHEREAS, George, alias George Labele, of Fayette county, in the state of Kentucky, stands charged by an indictment found by the Grand Jurors in and for the said county of Fayette, with the stealing and taking away two horses the property of Mrs. John Buckenridge, in the aforesaid county of Fayette and state aforesaid.

AND WHEREAS, information has been received at the Executive Department of this State, that the said George, alias George Labele has fled from justice, and is now going at large, in the state of New York, and it being important and highly necessary for the good of society, that the perpetrators of such offences should be brought to justice: Now, therefore, I, James Clark

Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution and laws of the United States, do, by these presents, demand the said George, alias George Labele

as a fugitive from the justice of the laws of this state, and make known to your Excellency that I have appointed

my agent to receive said fugitive, and bring him to this state, having jurisdiction of the said offence, that he may abide his trial for the crime with which he stands charged.

In compliance with the requisitions, I herewith annex and submit to your Excellency a copy of the Indictment upon which this demand is founded, which I certify is authentic.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to be affixed at FRANKFORT, the 19th day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven and in the Forty-sixth year of the Commonwealth.

La. Clark

BY THE GOVERNOR,

Wm Bullock Secretary of State.
